

Knights to the rescue

■ By Sylvia Defendi

The Knights of the Southern Cross (KSC) presented the first part of their $1 million pledge to Archbishop Barry Hickey on July 17.

A cheque for $100,000 was accepted by His Grace and Chairman of St Mary's Cathedral Fundraising Appeal, Monsignor Michael Keating. The pledge was made specifically for the provision of the restored and completed organ for the new St Mary's Cathedral and will be paid in instalments over the next three years.

With the Cathedral as a backdrop, Vicar General, Brian O'Loughlin, chaplain to the KCS stands with representative chairman of Knicross Enterprises, Brian Bonser, KSC deputy state chairman, Peter Jack, Archbishop Hickey, KSC state treasurer, John Chegwiddden, Mgr Keating, KSC state chairman, Joe Palandri and member of KSC state council, Guido Vogels. PHOTO: SYLVIA DEFENDI